Mrs. John J. Cox, 85, lifelong resident of Little Rock, died Monday. She was a member of the Baptist Church. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, Raymond Cox of Texarkana, Cecil Cox of Hope, Eugene Cox of San Antonio; four brothers, Mes Ward of Pennsylvania, Ed Ward of Pooke, Roy Ward of Texarkana, Ivan Ward of Garland City; two sisters, Mrs. Ona Shelton and Mrs. Bettie Pitts, both of Texarkana. Services will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Oakcrest Funeral Chapel by the Rev. C.C. Truitt. Burial will be in Memory Gardens by Oakcrest Funeral Home.

U.S. Refusing Planes to Israel Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers told congressional leaders today the administration is refusing, for now, Israel's request for new warplanes—but added that the United States will advance that nation some $100 million in new financial aid.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said Rogers came to the Capitol to brief Senate leaders of both parties on the decision he will announce later today.

Chief Justice Burger said the decision could create an "administrative morass" and added: "I would not suggest that the procedures of administering the nation's complex welfare programs are beyond the reach of courts, but I would wait until more is known about the problems before fashioning solutions in the rigidity of a constitutional holding."

Justice Stewart, in a one-sentence dissent, said he found the decision "close one but did not agree with the majority" that New York's procedures violate the Constitution.

At the same time, and by the same vote, the court ruled unconstitutional California's procedure for reviewing welfare cases before suspending aid. Similar cases are pending in Iowa, Texas, Georgia and Florida, and the ruling is expected to have national implications.

The decision was a major victory for welfare and poverty lawyers. In recent years they have won rulings from the high court that a struck down one-year residence requirements and protected the rights of mothers to receive aid even though a man was living with them.

Under the New York procedure, officials were required to give notice to the recipient of the reasons for a proposed discontinuance or suspension of aid at least seven days prior to the cut-off. Upon request, the recipient could have the suspension reviewed by a local welfare officer. The recipient also could submit a written statement to support his argument that his grant should be continued.

Priests Posing a Pastoral Problem

By GEDFREY ANDERSON
AP Religion Writer

LONDON (AP) — The number of Roman Catholic priests leaving the ministry is posing a pastoral problem for bishops and religious superiors, says a confidential report circulated to Church leaders all over the world.

The report, from an international Church research center in Western Europe, says the attitude of the Catholic community is far from unanimous in the way it handles the issue.

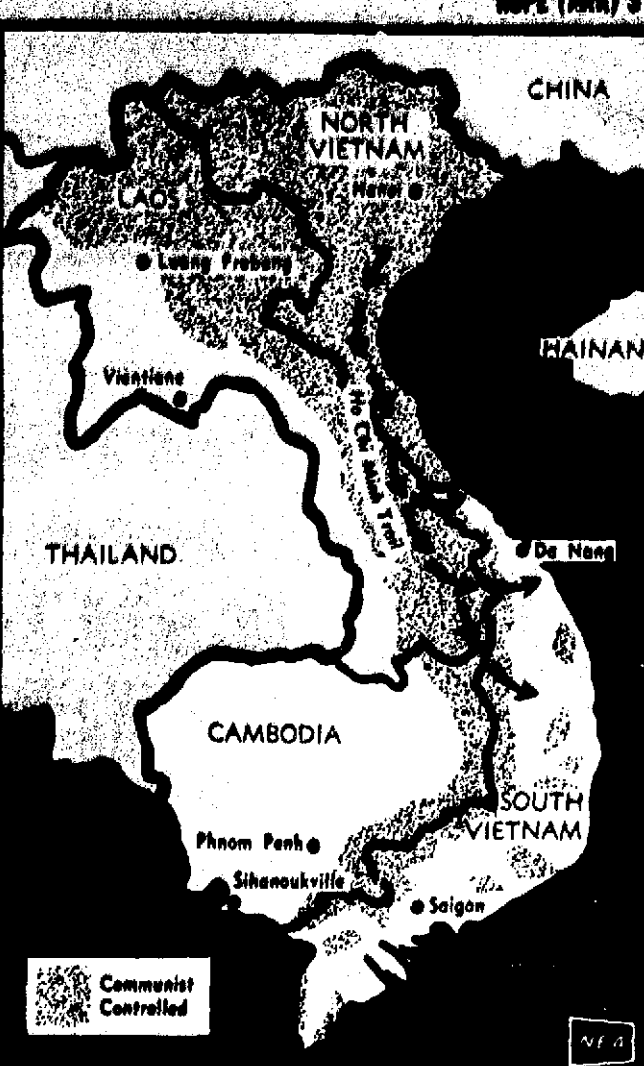

"According to region, it can still today vary from unqualified condemnation to acquiescence, passing through all the stages of understanding," the report said. "The subject is still, in the majority of countries, one of those not discussed except by hints on the level of the hierarchies. The result is that the most fantastic information is circulating among ecclesiastics and laymen, all tending, in our experience, in the direction of a grave exaggeration of the number of leavers."

The report suggested it might be better to publish the true figures than to allow "false rumors, generally exaggerated and alarmist" to spread without the possibility of denial.

Only in Holland have complete figures been published. Out of the country's 8,000 priests, 30 left the ministry in 1965, 60 in 1966, 115 in 1967, and 400 in the two years since. At the same time the number of priests dying has exceeded the number of new priests ordained. The present rate of 145 ordinations a year is running at about half what it was 10 years ago.

The Dutch Pastoral Council has voted overwhelmingly that permanent celibacy should no longer be a condition of ordination.

Bishops supported the council, but Pope Paul VI has ruled that to abandon celibacy would mean "a lowering of the authentic concept of the priesthood."

With the government coup in Cambodia, the struggle in Southeast Asia is becoming more clearly an Indochinese rather than a limited Vietnamese conflict. North Vietnamese and local Communists are in active control of large areas throughout former French Indochina, although Cambodia and Laos are still officially neutral.

the town's medical center. In another bombing Sunday night, an American soldier and a Vietnamese civilian were wounded by a terrorist grenade tossed into a beverage shop near a U.S. enlisted men's quarters just outside Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airport.

The bombings and grenade attacks, which until Sunday had been largely ineffectual, came about two weeks after official U.S. sources predicted stepped-up terror attacks in the Saigon area.

However, they said the attacks, part of a Viet Cong effort to create "an illusion of strength," would primarily be directed against U.S. and government buildings in the capital city.

On the battlefield, fighting picked up with 89 of the enemy reported killed in battles in the Mekong Delta's U Minh forest, south of Da Nang and north of Saigon along the jungled Cambodian border.

Thirty of the enemy dead were killed in a clash Sunday night about a mile from Cambodia.

Overall American casualties in ground fighting across South Vietnam were put at one killed and four wounded. Government losses were described as light.

Two enemy mortar attacks overnight killed five persons and wounded 24.

U.S. Officers Fear Loss of Laos Area

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — High ranking U.S. officers say the loss of the key Laotian base town of Long Tieng would seriously reduce the effectiveness of the most reliable troops fighting the North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao.

Long Tieng, 80 miles north of the administrative capital of Vientiane, is a logistical, administrative and political center for the anti-Communist Meo tribal army, which American military leaders say rates as "a pretty high blue chip on our side."

The Meos, headed by Gen. Vang Pao, are credited with doing most of the effective fighting against the North Vietnamese-Pathet Lao over the past several years.

Without them, there would be little left but the unreliable Royal Lao Army—unless there is more help from the outside.

According to the view of U.S. officials in Washington, impairment of the Meo's effectiveness would put the pro-Communist Pathet Lao in their best political position in eight years of off-and-on fighting and enhance their position in a possible negotiated settlement with the present Laotian government.

Senior U.S. military officers, some of whom have had years of experience in Southeast Asia, were rather slow in acknowledging the current Communist offensive may be more serious than in past years.

There is no uniformity of opinion yet on just what the North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao are up to this year.

Jaycees Name Outstanding

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three men were named the Arkansas Jaycees' Outstanding Young Men here Saturday.

Receiving the awards were Dr. Tal D. Bonham, pastor of the Southside Baptist Church in Pine Bluff; Coy Austin Clark, principal of Mitchell School in Little Rock and Dr. Frederick Fraunfelder, of the University of Arkansas Medical Center.

A panel of judges made the selections from 36 nominations made by Jaycee chapters throughout the state.

Late Payment Fee by AP&L Is Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality today of the additional charge against Arkansas Power & Light Co. customers for late payment of their bills.

Kenneth Coffelt, a Jacksonville lawyer, had contended that the late charge violated the state constitution's usury provisions. The constitution limits interest rates to 10 per cent per year.

The state Public Service Commission in 1969 authorized AP&L to add a late charge of 8 per cent of the first $15 of the net bill and 2 per cent of any amount in excess of $15.

The Supreme Court said the late charge, as approved by the PSC, was simply a practical method of preventing discrimination among the utility company's customers.

"Its effect is to require delinquent rate payers to bear as nearly as can be determined, the exact collection cost that results from their tardiness in paying their bills," the Supreme Court said in an opinion written by Justice George Rose Smith.

Monday, March 23, 1970

The Supreme Court ruling upheld a decision by Chancellor Kay L. Matthews of Little Rock.

In another case, the Supreme Court reversed the conviction of Ernest Scott Petree in Washington County Circuit Court and ordered a new trial on the burglary and grand larceny charges of which he had been convicted.

The court upheld Petree's contention that incriminating admissions by Petree were involuntarily given.

Citing the U.S. Supreme Court's Miranda decision against self-incrimination, the state court said a defendant has an unqualified right to halt questioning by police and consult with an attorney.

A defendant's request that he have a lawyer's advice precludes further questioning, the court said, but the record of the Petree case showed that an officer continued to interrogate Petree after he said he wanted to talk with a lawyer before signing any statement indicating that he had been advised of his rights.

BRIDE FETED WITH SHOWER

Before her wedding to Jason Robert Moore on March 22, Miss Patricia Gail Walton was entertained with a lingerie shower on Friday, March 20 by Mrs. Sam Huckabee of Hope and Mrs. Jake Honea of Arkadelphia.

A yellow and green color scheme was used in the Huckabee home, and pretty spring flowers were seen throughout. The honoree wore a blue linen dress with a chain belt and had a white camellia corsage. Her mother, Mrs. Kelly Walton, and sister, Mrs. Dennis Butler, also had camellia corsages.

The serving table was overlaid with a gold cloth and centered with a spring bouquet. Frosted lime punch and cake squares were served to 15. The bride-elect received many lovely gifts for her trousseau.

REHEARSAL DINNER

A rehearsal dinner for the Walton-Moore wedding party was held at the Town and Country on Saturday, March 21 with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore of Little Rock as hosts.

Yellow irises and bells of Ireland decorated the table where covers were laid for 30. The bride-elect, Miss Patricia Gail Walton, wore a yellow knitted dress and had a bridal corsage.

Miss Walton and her fiancé, Jason Robert Moore of Springdale, chose this time to present gifts to members of the wedding.

B&PW CLUB MEETS

The Hope B & PW Club had a hamburger supper at the Douglas Building on Thursday, March 19 to climax the informal initiation for 33 new members of the Nike Club. Easter decorations were used in pretty array, and an evening of fun was had by everyone. The club voted on new officers for the coming year, and the results will be announced later.

BRIDGE CLUB PLAY

A local Friday Bridge Club met with Mrs. C.C. Lewis on March 20. The two tables of players included one club guest, Mrs. F.R. Moses. When scores were tallied, Mrs. Moses and Mrs. Charles Harrell were high.

The hostess served strawberry shortcake and coffee for refreshments.

SHOWER SPRINGS HD CLUB

A special guest, Roy Fry, had a most interesting discussion of horses at the Shower Springs 4-H Club meeting on March 17. It was enjoyed by 23 members; a new member, Mark Dillard; leaders, Travis England, Mrs. Homer Poindexter, and Mrs. Martha McCorkle; and visitors, Charles and Karen McCorkle, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Holliday and Kevin, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Poindexter, and Mrs. Travis England.

Club President Stevie Skinner called the meeting to order, and Peggy Reece led the group in singing "Holy, Holy, Holy" and "Vive l'Amour." Pledges were led by Doreen Dugger and Randy Holliday, and demonstrations were given by Peggy Reece and Carol Dillard, Debra Dugger had the devotion.

After the meeting, refreshments were served by Mark Sparks and Stevie Skinner.

Inexpensive Investment

If your family has outgrown the dining room table, or if you just want enough eating space for a party, snack (or TV) trays are an inexpensive and invaluable investment. Serve a meal buffet-style, with set-ups on each tray, and let your family or guests make themselves comfortable in the living room or playroom.

Coming, Going

Mrs. Martha Brashier, Mrs. Betty Jane Foster and Mrs. Billie Russell are delegates to the AEA Representative Assembly in Little Rock March 14 at Hall High.

Mrs. Bonnie Beckworth, Mrs. Martha Brashier, Mrs. Daisy Cox and Mrs. Betty Jane Foster went to a follow-up of the ATAC seminar at Ouachita University Tuesday, March 17 in the Berry Bible Building. The highlight of the meeting was an address by the new president of Ouachita, Dr. Daniel Grant.

Miss Georgia Clark of Fayetteville was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stewart.

Mrs. Catherine Cox Faulkner and children, Pine Bluff, visited in Hope and Fulton this weekend.

Water Needs Are Greater

If it seems as though your water heater has shrunk in the last few years, check your premises: It hasn't. Your water needs have become greater. Use of water-connected equipment has grown 60 per cent in the last 10 years, with the greatest increase taking place in the last five. This means that, if your water heater is five years or older, it may be obsolete capacity-wise even if it functions perfectly mechanically. The answer is a new heater with a bigger tank and faster recovery rate.

CAPTIVE DINERS SAY FOOD IS A FIZZLE

Dear Helen: We have been to three so-called "banquets" this month — those command appearances where if you don't show up, you get raised eyebrows. One honored a retiring company executive. Another was an "awards dinner," and the third a testimonial for our football team.

So fine. We don't mind going out for a worthy cause, but we don't appreciate coming away hungry. These dinners are almost never less than $7.00 per person (not including the tab for the "happy hour"). They're worth about $1.50. They aren't fund-raisers so we can't deduct for charity.

But we should, for the food is uniformly lousy! I've even been served hamburger patties. If "steak" is advertised, you can bet it's dry, tough, tiny, and cold. The service is as bad! Restaurateurs evidently figure they have captive diners so they can make triple profits. Yet these same restaurants serve tremendous individual dinners at under $5.00. How come? — PLENTY IRKED

Dear P.L.: Good question. Perhaps restaurateurs will cook up a batch of answers. — H.

Dear Helen: My family says I should consult a counselor to "get straightened out." They don't see it's all their fault. They care nothing about me, ignore me, never pay attention to my illnesses. The doctor is no better. He can't find anything wrong, when I know how miserable I am.

They complain because I "watch television all day and don't get things done." Why should I, for these ungrateful people? I've been used and discarded, and they just go their merry way. . . . (Note: On like this for 10 whining pages which end): My husband told me yesterday I enjoy feeling sorry for myself. How cruel can you get? I may yet spend a lot of his money for a psychoanalyst just to prove him wrong. — CAST ASIDE

Dear Cast: Your husband is more honest than cruel, if I'm any judge of letters.

Bishop Sheen has said, "If the pain of washing the skillet is greater than the pleasure of eating the meal, it isn't worth it." Let's paraphrase his words: "If the pain of knowing yourself is greater than the pleasure of self-pity, psychotherapy is wasted effort. You must be READY for help before you'll benefit from it." — H.

Dear Helen: There has been a cute little puppy hanging around our house. No one claimed him. Our children feed him, but I made it clear they couldn't keep the dog.

We have a small yard, and I am not an animal lover. I DID give it a try one for the sake of my family, but no one bathed or house-trained the pup. He was a disaster and I ended up on tranquilizers. We sold him to unknown victims three years ago.

I put my husband and children's happiness first, but another dog? That darn, eager, grateful little puppy has wiggled his way into their hearts, and he's sitting on the doorstep, waiting his destiny. Give me strength Helen! — DOG HAUNTED.

Dear D.H.: Sorry, I'm fresh out of "strength." That "eager, grateful, wiggly little puppy" is going to win and you know it. And remember: Dogs have good and bad personalities, just as do humans. Perhaps this time you've found a winner. —

MRS. PAUL E. GUERIN

The marriage of Miss Julia Randolph Holder and Paul Emmett Guerin was solemnized in the Chapel of the First Presbyterian Church of Little Rock on Saturday afternoon March 21st. After a trip to Oklahoma the couple will be at home in Conway where the groom is Admissions Counsellor for Hendrix College.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James B. Holder of Little Rock and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. D. Lloyd Guerin of Conway.

Reverend Ben Collins performed the ceremony and the music was furnished by Mrs. Clifton Bond of Monticello.

Dr. Holder gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of Peau d'ange lace over white tulle. The skirt was bell shaped with a fitted bodice, a high jeweled neckline and short sleeves. The full train was attached. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a jeweled Juliet Cap. She carried a bouquet of miniature roses.

Miss Susan Turner of Hope was Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Katherine and Kevin Guerin, sisters of the groom. Joe Purvis of Hope served as Best Man. He was also attended by Dr. James B. Holder III of Monroe, La., and Dr. John T. Holder of New Orleans, brothers of the bride as well as Bill Christeson of Little Rock, David Blair of Jonesboro and Peter and David Guerin, brothers of the groom.

The reception was at Trapnall Hall.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — A sprinkling of special programs seasoned the network schedules over the week-end, with two particularly worthy of comment.

The most fun for the viewer was the special with two big talents, Harry Belafonte and Lena Horne, complementing each other. Most interesting was a two-hour film feature on air pollution.

The Belafonte-Horne collaboration, an ABC hour Sunday night, was strictly a two-personer show, handled on a square stage of many levels and surrounded on three sides by an audience.

The stars more or less took turns singing, occasionally working together. With the exception of Miss Horne's "I Want To Be Happy," none of the numbers were familiar. There were ghetto songs, city-life songs, nostalgia songs, love songs, even a lullaby. Almost all of them more interesting for their content and presentation than for their tunes.

"A clear and present danger," in NBC's "World Premiere" series, tackled air pollution as an element of a dramatic show.

It was an interesting attempt, but came a cropper because the dramatist, like others worried about our environment, could come up with no satisfactory solution and because pollution is so much bigger than the personal conflict on which the story was hung.

Hal Holbrook played a senator's son with his own political ambitions who, upon visiting an industrial city, finds an old friend has died of emphysema, with the smoke and gas filled air of the community a contributing factor.

This kicks him off on a one-man crusade to do something about the city air.

But at the end, the concerned hero can only say: "I refuse to believe that there is no solution."

NBC apparently thinks so highly of the idea of a fearless, idealistic politician that Holbrook will continue his role as one segment of "The Bold Ones" next season.

Also continued will be segments about doctors and lawyers. The portion of the trilogy involving a district attorney and a police official, co-starring Harl Rhodes and Leslie Nielsen, will be dropped.

The National Educational Network starts tonight four consecutive programs showing the trial last year of a member of the Black Panthers on a charge of resisting arrest.

The trial was held in Denver, Colo., where cameras are permitted in courtrooms. The series starts with the jury selection and ends four programs later with the verdict. It is, NET believes, the first TV report of a legal proceeding.

Data About Your Social Security

By KEN HARGIS

If you have any questions regarding social security, I invite your letters. Just send them to Social Security Administration, Ken Hargis, P.O. Box 1319, Texarkana, Texas 75501.

QUESTION: I have employed a maid in my home for many years. I pay her $25 a week wages. I just learned I had to report her wages for social security. How far back do I go?

ANSWER: All the way back to 1951, if she has been with you that long. Sometimes reported wages are not uncovered until the worker claims social security or dies, and employers often face a big delinquent tax bill.

QUESTION: I just broke my leg and my doctor says I will be off work about five months. Can I receive disability insurance payments?

ANSWER: Probably not. To receive disability insurance payments you must have a physical or mental impairment which will prevent you from doing any substantial gainful work for at least 12 full months.

QUESTION: If I do not work under social security for the next 10 years, do I lose credit for the work I have done for about 15 years when I was under social security?

ANSWER: No. You never lose credit for reported earnings for past work you have had under social security.

QUESTION: A college friend of mine received social security student benefits. Since I'm having a tough time financially, I wonder if I can qualify too?

ANSWER: A student's benefits are payable to a son or daughter of an insured worker who is retired, disabled, or deceased. The student must be unmarried and under age 22.

QUESTION: My father and mother are employed. I am 21 years old. Can I qualify for social security benefits? I am a student and have no income.

ANSWER: You may be able to qualify for social security benefits if you have earned enough credits for social security insurance or disability insurance or been covered at the time of death.

Pistol Pete In Accord With ABA

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Pete Maravich isn't a high draft pick today by the National Basketball Association, it's probably a good indication the NBA thinks the LSU Pistol has reached an accord with the American Basketball Association.

Maravich and his father, LSU Coach Press Maravich, repeatedly denied over the weekend that Pistol Pete had signed—or agreed to terms—with the Carolina Cougars of the ABA.

The ABA's New Orleans Buccaneers don't think so either. An official of the financially troubled Louisiana franchise says the Bucs are still dicker for Maravich under an ABA agreement that New Orleans can sign him—if he wants to play there. New Orleans would have to compensate Carolina for the loss of Maravich, however.

The ABA conducts the remainder of its draft here today—starting at 10 a.m., EST. The league held the first four rounds earlier behind closed doors but most of the ABA selections have leaked out and the so-called Lively League has already signed four first-round picks—All-Americans Rick Mount of Purdue and Dan Issel of Kentucky, Charlie Scott of North Carolina and Mike Maloy of Davidson.

The NBA, with Detroit picking first, got into action two hours later.

"We feel regrettable that some of these players didn't wait until we had our draft," said Nick Curran, an NBA official. "These players didn't even wait to see what the NBA could offer. In some cases, they might have gotten more."

Detroit was expected to draft Bob Lanier, the St. Bonaventure giant, who was earlier picked by the ABA's New York Nets. Lanier, 6'7", was reported to have agreed to a $1.5 million offer from the NBA. That's $100,000 more than the deal Lew Alcindor got a year ago for signing with Milwaukee of the NBA.

Alcindor's pact has already been equalled—or perhaps topped—in the signing by the ABA's Kentucky Colonels of All-American Issel, who got an announced $1.4 million, but perhaps more. Kentucky has also signed Mike Pratt of Kentucky and Claude Virden of Murray State.

The Indiana Pacers of the ABA have signed Mount for a reported pact that could ultimately mean a million dollars to the Purdue star over a 40-year (CQ) period. Indiana has also been negotiating with its No. 2 choice, Dennis Awire of Santa Clara.

Thinks Club Owners Are Stalling

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Marvin Miller, the Major League Baseball Players Association's executive director, has charged club owners with stalling in the negotiations of a new contract.

Miller said Sunday, however, that he would not recommend strike action at the present

He Thinks Bruins Have Proved Point

By TOM SEPPY Associated Press Sports Writer COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Steve Patterson says UCLA wanted to prove it had a great team this season without Lew Alcindor. And he thinks the Bruins made their point.

"I think we established ourselves as No. 1," he said after UCLA defeated Jacksonville 60-55 Saturday. "We proved we were five guys who could play together."

Patterson, a 6-foot-9 junior from Santa Maria, Calif., said the Bruins have felt the pressure of playing in the shadow of 7-foot-2 Alcindor, who dominated college basketball from 1966-69 and led UCLA to three consecutive titles.

"It worked on the fellows," said Patterson, who played behind Alcindor, the past two seasons.

"You know, you come into a city to play and the newspaper headlines say 'Alcindor—less UCLA.' When you see that every place you go, it works on you."

Coach John Wooden told newsmen all week long he did not think he had to prove himself over again without Alcindor, rumors to the contrary.

"If I had not won before having Lewis," he repeated often, to what they are saying. "But I didn't think I had to prove anything."

Wooden has had 22 consecutive winning seasons at UCLA and won the national championship in 1964 and 1965, missing out only in 1966, before taking the next four.

The Bruins coach told newsmen he believed he had five teams that should have won the national championship but did not.

Wooden also believes he will have an outstanding team next year since he loses only senior guard John Vallely. It is understood he has two equally talented young guards waiting in the wings to take Vallely's place.

Returning next season will be the team's most valuable player—6-8 Sidney Wicks of whom Wooden said: "I don't know of any forward in the country I'd trade for him."

Curtis Rowe, a 6-6 forward who made the all-tournament team along with Wicks and Vallely, Patterson and sophomore Henry Bibby, a 6-1 outside shooting guard, also will be back.

Wooden told newsmen the key to UCLA's latest national title was the change on defense he made in an effort to stop Jacksonville's 7-2 Artis Gilmore after the Dolphins jumped to an early lead.

The Bruins coach said it was his plan to play Wicks in front of Gilmore but have his guards attack the ball handlers and prevent them from getting the ball to the giant center. It didn't work.

Wicks said the Dolphins beat him by lobbing the ball over his head and set Gilmore up for a couple of easy layups.

Dog Racing Decision Deferred

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Racing Commission tabled a request for racing dates for Southland's dog track in West Memphis pending an investigation into Southland's activities.

A hearing will begin today at the state capitol into Southland's activities. It will be conducted jointly by the commission and a special investigation committee of the Arkansas Legislature.

A. V. Spear, Southland's president, had requested two 57-day racing periods, one running from May 29 to August 15 and the other from August 17 to November 3.

In other action, the commission hired John Purifoy Gill, a Little Rock lawyer, to act in the commission's behalf during the investigation.

Among those appearing before the hearing will be Rep. Sam Steiger, Rep. Ariz., who has criticized High Park Inc. for alleged underworld dealings. High Park Inc., headed by Jeremy Jacobs of Buffalo, N.Y., is said to own 46 per cent of Southland's stock.

Jacobs and the former president of Southland, Richard H. Upton of West Memphis, are also scheduled to testify during the hearing.

Upton recently resigned as Southland's president saying he refused to be a "puppet president" for Jacobs.

Los Angeles Pulls No Punches

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Los Angeles pulled no punches and had Carolina seeing Stars. One of the Stars Carolina saw was Willie Wise... and another, Andy Anderson.

Wise tossed in 31 points and collected 19 rebounds and Anderson contributed 23 more points as Los Angeles battered Carolina 106-92 in the American Basketball Association Sunday.

The victory was the Stars' 13th in their last 14 games. Indiana bombed New York 114-87, Kentucky tripped New Orleans 130-127 in double overtime and Miami turned back Dallas 160-155 in Sunday's other ABA games.

In Saturday's action, Dallas beat New Orleans 126-120 and Denver whipped Carolina 128-105.

In the National Basketball Association Sunday, Boston spilled New York 115-112, Atlanta defeated Detroit 130-126, Chicago blitzed Milwaukee 129-115, Philadelphia downed San Francisco 132-112, and Phoenix nipped San Diego 130-129.

Los Angeles took advantage of Carolina's disastrous second quarter in Sunday's victory over the Cougars. The Stars jumped to a 28-21 first period lead, then broke the game open as Carolina was unable to score for the first five minutes of the second period. The Cougars scored only 12 in the period.

John Barnhill scored 16 points in the final quarter to lead Indiana over New York. Barnhill had three, three-point field goals in the quarter as he totaled 22 points to lead the Pacers' scoring.

Kentucky and New Orleans were tied at 110 at the end of the first overtime. The second overtime period was close until the final seconds. The Colonels nailed it down with 32 seconds remaining on a field goal by Louis Dampier and another shortly thereafter by Gene Moore.

Miami sprinted to an 82-64 halftime lead, then had to fight down to the wire to beat St. Louis. The Chaps connected for 91 second half points behind John Beasley, who had 45 in the game.

Don Freeman had 43 and George Lehmann, 42, for the winners.

Goalie Admits Hand Is Still Shaking

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN Associated Press Sports Writer CHICAGO (AP) — Tony Esposito, his ears ringing from the crowd's thunderous ovation, peeled protective gauze from his bruises in the quietness of the Chicago Black Hawk dressing room and held out his hand. It was trembling.

"Sure, I'm nervous every time I'm out there—see, my hand is still shaking," said the rookie goalie who registered his 13th shutout to equal a National Hockey League record.

Tony, whose brother Phil of Boston won the Hart Trophy as most valuable player last season, had a relatively easy time with the St. Louis Blues. He was required to stop only 21 shots as the Hawks blanked them 1-0 Sunday night.

Doug Mohns' 15-foot goal at 12:19 of the last period while the Blues were short a man was all Chicago needed to stay one point behind Boston for first place in the East Division. If the Hawks can finish on top they would become the first club in NHL history to climb from sixth to first in one year.

Bobcats Place One Man on All-District

By BILL MOORE Well, the 4-AA all-district team in basketball has been selected and the Hope Bobcats placed one member on the team.

Although out with an injury during district competition, Larry Muldrew of the Bobcats was selected for his seasonal play.

Other members of the team are as follows:

NAME	TEAM
Earl Morgan	Warren
David Groce	Monticello
John McClain	Monticello
Bill Vining	Arkadelphia
Rosevelt Davis	Malvern
Freddie Jones	Malvern
Royce Bailey	Magnolia
Howard Martin	Camden
Tim Womack	Camden
Mike Martin	Fairview
Shady Patton	Fairview
Jimmy Harris	Fairview
Richard Pryor	Lincoln
Donny Davidson	Lincoln
Eddy Ray Moore	Lincoln
Eddy Jones	Snackover

The most valuable play award went to Freddie Jones of Malvern over a large field of other fine athletes.

Switching to the golf scene, the Hope High golfers defeated the 4-AA defending champion Panthers, Friday, 15-3, for the first victory in as many games.

Ralph Routon took medalist honors with a 5 over par 76. Not far behind were Jack Turner with a 79, Jimmy Pruden 80, and Jerry Pruden 86.

Hope led after the first nine 4-2 and took the second nine 11-1, in the process of breaking the school record of 321 strokes. The old record was 323, which was set last year.

The HHS golfers actually had the advantage, playing in a hard driving rain, in which Camden was not accustomed to, while Hope has been playing in for the last week.

A game set for Fordyce Saturday morning, was cancelled because of rain while Hope's next opponent will be Magnolia, there, on Tuesday. A list of the remaining schedule is below.

Illinois Wins In Speed Skating

NORTHBROOK, Ill. (AP) — Illinois piled up 131 points in the 34 events to win the North American Indoor Special Speed Skating Championship Sunday.

Illinois has been a big factor in the resurgence. His 13th shutout matched the record set by Toronto's Harry Lumley in a 70-game sub-season in 1953-54.

He has six games to go in trying to break it.

ALTHOUGH HE RARELY SMILES during the course of a season—no matter how well he's going—Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins has a big one for the fans in Orlando, Fla., where team is training. Harmon was MVP in the American League last season and carries a big load.

Colleges Looking for Big Player

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Champion Vincennes, Ind., had most of the height, but it was a pair of hot-shooting little guards who stole the individual show in the National Junior College Basketball Tournament which concluded here Saturday night.

For those major college coaches looking for big men, Vincennes had them — 6-foot-10 Robert McAdoo, 6-9 Roy Simpson and 6-5 Jerry Dunn. The skyscrapers powered the Trailblazers to an 85-67 victory over Moberly, Mo., in the title game.

McAdoo scored 29 points in the championship game, while Dunn was named to the all-tournament team.

Moberly had one of the tournament's two top shooters, however, in Andy Knowles, a 5-10 long-range gunner who scored 104 points in his four tournament games for a 26.0 average. He got 25 in the title game.

The other high-scoring guard in the tournament was Larry Brown, a 6-footer for Northeastern Junior College of Miami, Okla. Brown scored 128 points in his four tournament games for a 32.0 average.

Brown and Knowles also were selected to the all-tourney team. Lake City claimed third place with a 78-74 victory over Des Moines.

Minnesota Issues 15 Walks

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

In the beginning, Abner Doubleday or, if you prefer, Alexander Cartwright, decided that in their game of baseball, four balls out of the strike zone would allow the batter to take first base.

It was to be known as a base on balls, a walk, a free ticket and a few other things by managers who've suffered with them through the years.

Bill Rigney, a manager who has done his share of suffering, sat quietly by Sunday watching his Minnesota staff issue 15... that is 15... walks against Boston. The Red Sox didn't need much more to beat the Twins 10-7.

Rigney, who developed a king-sized ulcer in earlier managerial stints at San Francisco and California, was simply sputtering after the Twins' 14th exhibition loss as against only one victory.

"I've never been in a training camp where so many have walked," said Rigney. "It's disgraceful, absolutely disgraceful."

Louis Tiant issued seven of the walks and Dick Woodson five. Four of Woodson's came consecutively in the seventh when the Red Sox rallied for four runs to break a 6-6 tie. Gerry Moses had a double and homer and George Scott a double and triple for Boston. Tony Oliva and Leo Cardenas homered for the Twins.

Sluggo Jimmy Wynn ended his long holdout, agreeing to a $57,000 contract with Houston.

Mayberry Feels Monkey on His Back

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — "We like him, but he's only 19. We don't want to push the door open for him. The less ballhoos the better."

"We don't want to put a monkey on his back."

The words belong to Houston Manager Harry Walker. The talent belongs to first baseman John Mayberry.

And so does the monkey. For if Mayberry, the hottest prospect in the Astros' system, can make the club and hit with the same authority he has in the minors Houston will be that much stronger to challenge the elite in the National League's Western Division.

It should be remembered that the Astros, relying heavily on a young pitching staff, hung in the pennant race until September before fading. On Sept. 10, as a matter of fact, they were within two games of the top.

There isn't that much more needed to push them to the top and there's little doubt Mayberry could be a factor. A slick-fielding first baseman with only three years of pro experience, Mayberry hit .303 at Oklahoma City last season and displayed power with 21 homers and 78 runs batted in.

If he makes the club he not only would give the Astros another bat but free Joe Peppitone, acquired from the New York Yankees in a trade for Curt Blefary, to step into an outfield that could use strengthening.

While that may be one of the keys to the Astros' challenge, the other was forged with the run they made at the pennant last season.

"It gave them confidence," said Walker. "If you've been there once you feel better."

The Astros got there with strong pitching, based in the young arms of four right-handed youngsters 25 years old and under—Larry Dierker, Don Wilson, Tom Griffin and Jim Ray—plus one veteran left-hander, Denny Lemaster.

The five were the major weapons on a pitching staff that set a major league record by striking out 1,221 batters. But Walker found his second-line pitching and bullpen were far less adequate.

The club, therefore, has picked up every loose thread around and there now is as assortment that includes Dan Osinski, Jim Bouton, Jack Delano to go with such as Jack Billingham and Fred Gladding. How effective the second-line group is likely will determine whether the Astros are strong enough to stay in the race the entire season.

The remainder of the line-up is sound, beginning with veteran catcher Johnny Edwards, who hit only .232 but was important in the development of the young staff.

At first it'll either be Peppitone or Mayberry. Joe Morgan is at bat in an infield that hit for averages.

NOPE (ARK) STAN: Printed by OHS

but the Astros looked pretty good without him Sunday, beating the Montreal Expos 4-3.

Tommy Davis' ninth inning homer won it and Joe Peppitone and pinch hitter Bob Watson also connected for the Astros. Rusty Staub connected for the Expos.

Willie Crawford hammered a homer and a three-run double, leading Los Angeles to an 11-7 victory over Baltimore with Orioles pitchers tagged for 11 hits, seven for extra bases. Steve Garvey homered and Bill Grabarkewicz had a double and triple for the Dodgers while Paul Blair delivered a homer and triple and Bob Grich three singles for the Orioles.

Joe Torre, shackled by a spring slump which had him batting .103, snapped out of it with two singles to help St. Louis past Philadelphia 6-4. His fifth inning single broke a tie and then Vic Davalillo three-run homer in the eighth.

Fritz Peterson pitched seven innings, allowing only a two-run homer by rookie Elliot Maddox, as the New York Yankees trimmed Detroit 5-3. Peterson singled in a run in the sixth and Jerry Kenney homered for the Yanks.

Dock Ellis worked seven innings and Chuck Hartenstein and Gene Garber completed the shutout as Pittsburgh blanked Cincinnati 4-0 on a five-hitter. Willie Stargell homered for the Pirates.

Bobby Knoop cracked a single, double and homer, driving in four runs and leading the Chicago White Sox to an 8-3 victory over Kansas City. John Matias and Walt Williams also homered for the Sox.

Bob Tillman doubled in the tying runs and then scored Atlanta's go-ahead run in the seventh inning as the Braves rallied to beat Washington 7-3. Orlando Cepeda cracked a three-run homer for Atlanta.

San Francisco touring Japan, dropped its second straight with the Lotte Crions beating the Giants 4-3. Willie McCovey had a two-run homer for the Giants.

In other games, Bert Campaneris socked his second homer in as many days and Oakland Whipped California 7-1. Vada Pinson homered for Cleveland and the Indians trimmed Seattle 4-3, and the San Diego Padres edged the Chicago Cubs 5-4.

Chamberlain's Knee Seems Well Healed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wilt Chamberlain's knee is healing, and now he's just a pain in the neck of the opposition.

Los Angeles' super center, recovering from an early season knee operation, played 42 minutes Sunday in his third comeback game and helped the Lakers topple Seattle 121-118 Sunday in the National Basketball Association.

Chamberlain scored 21 points and had 18 rebounds, his best effort in the comeback games.

Boston defeated New York 115-112; Atlanta spilled Detroit 130-128; Chicago walloped Milwaukee 129-115; Philadelphia hammered San Francisco 132-112 and Phoenix got by San Diego 130-129 in Sunday's other NBA action.

In the American Basketball Association, Los Angeles crushed Carolina 106-92; Indiana bettered New York 114-97; Kentucky stopped New Orleans 130-127 in double overtime and Miami rolled past Dallas 100-135.

The Lakers fought off a fourth-quarter rally by Seattle to finish their season two games behind the Western Division-leading Atlanta Hawks.

Johnny Egan, who scored 19 points, helped Chamberlain choke off Seattle's late comeback with critical scoring plays. Bob Rife of Seattle was the game leader with 33 points.

Rookie Jo Jo White scored nine of his 22 points in the final period as Boston came from behind for the win over New York, which closed out its season with four straight losses.

Boston, the defending NBA champion, finished sixth in the Eastern Division and were eliminated from the playoffs for the first time in 20 years.

Baskets by Walt Hazzard and Jim Davis in the final 28 seconds enabled Atlanta to shut off Detroit's late rallies.

Sub Fred Hetzel sparked a second-period rally that helped Philadelphia beat San Francisco. Philadelphia led 31-26 after the first period, but Hetzel scored 14 of his game-high 25 points to open a 13-point lead at halftime.

Chicago used a scoring spurt in the last three minutes to take the victory over Milwaukee. The Bucks chopped the Chicago lead to 110-107 with 3:12 remaining, but six straight points for the Bulls put the game out of reach.

Proficiency Is Word for Meminger

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — He is not of heroic proportions although his disciples call him "The Dream". All Dean Meminger does is win basketball games with quiet proficiency.

Coach Al McGuire of Marquette labels Meminger "my star" — and an audience of 19,500 at Madison Square Garden Saturday would have had to agree.

Meminger's star quality play-making helped Marquette put away St. John's 65-63 to win the 33rd National Invitation Tournament.

"Every team has to have a star," said McGuire, flushed with the euphoria of his first championship, "and Meminger is mine."

Dean picked up the Most Valuable Player trophy for his work in the tournament, but was characteristically modest. "The whole team contributed," said the slope-shouldered, 6-foot guard. "It was a team effort."

It was a sweet homecoming for The Dream, who played his high school ball in New York.

"I've been playing basketball for 14 years," he said. "There's nothing much else to do when you grow up in an area like I did (Upper Manhattan)."

"The first time you learn to play basketball is when you're 10 years old. If you learn to play basketball well, it's a passport to a college education."

Meminger said he was satisfied with most of his game Saturday, but "I couldn't get my game together in the second half. The St. John's trap defense nullified me."

"Apparently not enough," added St. John's coach Lou Carnesecca.

Meminger was also chosen on the AP's all-tournament team along with Danny Heister and Pete Maravich of Louisiana State; Jim Ooley of Army and Rich Yunkus of Georgia Tech. Jeff Sewell and Joe Thomas of Marquette; Joe DePre of St. John's, Mike Givoy of Army, and Al Sanders of LSU made the second team.

WE ARE 404,000 ARKANSANS STRONG

People helping people. That's what Arkansas Blue Cross and Blue Shield is all about! Each month, over 404,000 Arkansans set aside a little money to help meet the cost of modern health care. When they need the benefits of their Blue Cross and Blue Shield membership, we're there to help. Many Think Education Program Short WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon's program for higher education falls short of meeting the needs of the coming decade, according to a leading congressional education expert.

Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., chairman of the House higher education subcommittee, says Nixon has failed to take into account the financial plight of the smaller private colleges or the need for expanded facilities to meet growing enrollments.

She also said Nixon's emphasis on aiding students from the lowest income families may work to the disadvantage of other needy students.

Although specific legislation has not been sent to Congress, it would appear Nixon plans to shift most federal support to the neediest students and let the others turn for assistance to long-term private loans backed by a federal guarantee.

The federal government now provides some sort of college help for 25 per cent of financial students, the overwhelming majority now receiving either direct or subsidized loans come from families with incomes below $10,000. Students from the poorest families already receive outright grants.

Mrs. Green's concern about Nixon's new approach was shared by some educators, particularly those dealing with student financial assistance.

Americans Lose Two More Planes

By JAY SHARBUTT

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy gunners shot down two more U.S.

Air Force planes over Laos and four Army helicopters over

South Vietnam, the U.S. Command announced today. Three men were killed, two are missing and two were wounded.

The two planes, an F4 Phantom jet and an A1 Skyraider, were shot down Thursday and Saturday over the northern part of the Laotian panhandle while operating against North Vietnam forces along the Ho Chi

Minh Trail to South Vietnam.

One of the Phantom's two crewmen was rescued, but the other and the pilot of the Skyraider are missing. A total of 10

American planes have been reported lost over Laos in the two weeks since the U.S. Command began announcing American losses over Laos. Most of them were attacking North Vietnam forces on the Ho Chi

Minh Trail, but some were operating in support of Laotian government forces.

Sunday was the second day

this month in which four American helicopters were reported shot down in South Vietnam, the other being March 6. Three crewmen were killed and two wounded in the crashes Sunday.

A total of 3,481 American helicopters have been reported lost in the Vietnam war.

Near Saigon Sunday night a Buddhist prayer-for-peace meeting, killing 14 women and children and wounding 20 other people, according to government spokesmen.

The grenade exploded in the midst of a crowd of nearly 400

persons praying in a courtyard at Hoc Mon, a district town seven miles northwest of Saigon.

South Vietnamese military spokesmen said the terrorist who threw the grenade was believed to have been a woman who escaped in the confusion.

The casualties at Hoc Mon were the worst in a recent wave of terrorist bombings, primarily centered in Saigon. There have been half a dozen such incidents in the city in the past eight days.

Hoc Mon officials told Associated Press photographer Dang Van

Phuoc the grenade exploded in front of a Buddhist pagoda facing the courtyard where Buddhists had gathered to pray for peace.

The most seriously wounded were evacuated by U.S. Army helicopters to Saigon. The rest

Cambodia Calls for a End to Occupation by Peaceful Means

By T. JEFF WILLIAMS

Associated Press Writer

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia

(AP) — The Cambodian government today called for an "end through peaceful means" to the occupation of Cambodian soil by

Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops.

Gen. Lon Nol, the conservative premier and defense minister, said in a statement the leaders who ousted Prince Norodom Sihanouk last week would try "through political and diplomatic means" to get the Communist Vietnamese to "recognize Cambodia's neutrality." But no mention was made of using Cambodia's 47,000 man

armed forces against the estimated 40,000 battle-hardened

North Vietnamese and Viet

Cong based along Cambodia's side of the border with South

Vietnam.

Sihanouk, Cambodia's ruler

since 1941, was deposed by Lon

Nol and Deputy Premier Sirik

Matak last Wednesday after a week of public demonstrations against the presence of the Communist troops. Lon Nol's government had given the intruders an ultimatum to quit the country but it was ignored, and Sihanouk was in Moscow asking the Russians to pressure Hanoi to remove its troops.

As part of the new regime's

Nixon, Congress Are Heading for Replay of Education Battle

By JOHN BECKLER

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon and Congress are heading for a replay of their battle royal over federal spending for education.

"Here we go again," a member of the House Appropriations Committee said this weekend

after checking a breakdown of the 1971 budget estimates for the Office of Education.

The administration is requesting $3.5 billion for the 100 or so programs under the Office of Education, a $300 million increase over this year.

But Congress added $1.2 billion to the 1970 budget for health and education. When Nixon vetoed that bill the lawmakers sent him another one $800 million above his request.

As a means of ending the struggle Congress allowed Nixon to cut 2 per cent of the additional funds wherever he wanted to; with that the President signed the bill.

The figures in the 1970 bill represent Congress' rock-bottom estimate of what is needed right now in the way of federal support for education, and it will undoubtedly press for increases in fiscal 1971. But even the 1970 figures approved by Congress are well above the administration's 1971 budget request.

In the final version of the 1970

bill Congress called for $4 billion for the Office of Education

instead of the $3.5 billion Nixon is seeking for 1971.

For the key program that provides remedial aid and special

The biggest difference of all is in the impacted areas program, which gives aid to school dis-

Postal Workers To Make Decision

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Little Rock branch of the National Association of Postal Workers will vote today on whether to strike.

The vote is expected to be close, but it is hoped that the workers will reach a settlement with the post office before the strike begins.

The Little Rock branch of the union has been in a dispute with the post office over the issue of mail carriers' pay. The union wants a 10 percent raise, while the post office offers a 5 percent raise.

The union has threatened to strike if its demands are not met. The strike would affect mail delivery in the Little Rock area.

Due to a cutback in federal funds, Babin said, there would be no money to pay the Little Rock postal employees who would be given their full vacation because part-time employees could not be hired for the summer months.

Babin said that a strike would be illegal.

However, he said, "It is a sad thing that someone has to bomb a building or cause a riot to get the essentials of life."

About 225 mail carriers are registered with the Little Rock branch and can vote at Tuesday's meeting.

Babin said union membership cards will be checked before the vote is taken, but he says members of the new media can attend the meeting.

Sunday Babin said he does not intend to stop debate on the strike during the meeting, although each speaker normally is limited to two to five minutes on the floor.

The federation's state president, Charles H. O'Brien, said he has urged all the state branch members to continue to work. However, he said the decision on the work stoppage rests with local branches.

O'Brien said it appeared that since several postal workers in the East had refused to return to work, the resolution passed in a national meeting Friday was void.

The resolution said workers would report to their jobs Monday and if an agreement had not been reached within five days, union leaders would call for a national work stoppage.

Meeting Sunday, the North Little Rock branch agreed to report to work today.

The Jonesboro branch also decided to continue working.

Decision at Arsenal Is Praised

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Adrian Williamson Jr., executive director of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission says that conversion of the Pine Bluff Arsenal to peaceful uses would illustrate that the United States is not only stopping biological warfare, but it is attempting to save people through biology.

Arkansas officials are trying to persuade the federal government to transfer the chemical biological warfare facility to either the departments of Agriculture, Interior or Health Education and Welfare.

Williamson said he believes the arsenal could be turned into a national center to attack environmental problems.

He said the state is awaiting clarification of what the Department of Defense plans to do with the top-secret arsenal. He said the facility is worth more than $100 million.

The arsenal employs 53 professionals with bachelor, masters or doctoral degrees in science; 67 nondegree personnel, most of them highly skilled technicians; and 179 others who have non technical or semi-technical skills.

Thinks Little of Nixon's Analysis

WASHINGTON (AP)—A top administration civil rights official says President Nixon's promised "comprehensive analysis" on school desegregation cannot have much effect on efforts to integrate classrooms.

Jerris Leonard, chief of the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division, said Sunday: "Really, irrespective of what anybody says about it, the legal process is in motion and it's going to be accomplished at least for all practical purposes."

Leonard said the President's statement "certainly will not in any way inhibit the progress that we have tried to make over the past 14 months in enforcing the school desegregation laws."

But, he went on, "There's no such a thing as a clarion call that sets one and only one standard, a direction, or approach to a very difficult problem that must be analyzed on a case by case and individual by individual school district."

Following this line, the Justice official said statewide desegregation suits are being considered now against North Carolina, South Carolina, Arkansas, Mississippi and Florida.

Leonard spoke on the CBS radio-TV interview program "Face the Nation."

Earlier in the weekend, James Farmer, the administration's highest ranking Negro, said the President's statement would put to rest any idea that the administration has backed away from integration.

"I have seen parts of the speech," Farmer said, "and I look with anticipation to the statement in the next week that the President will make."

Farmer, assistant secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, indicated hope Nixon's statement would help ease the great concern he said is felt by blacks about White House racial policies.

Another leading Republican, Senate GOP Leader Hugh Scott, also spoke during the weekend about concern over Nixon and racial policies.

He spoke on ABC's "Issues and Answers" interview program.

Hockey's East Division in Setback

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The torrid race in the National Hockey League's East Division took a momentary back seat to some individual heroics Sunday night.

Boston maintained its one-point lead over Chicago, shutting out Minnesota 5-0 with Bobby Orr scoring two goals and assisting on two others to shatter another NHL record. The two assists gave Orr 78 for the season, breaking the mark set by his teammate, Phil Esposito, last year.

But another Esposito, Phil's goaltending brother, Tony, saved the family name by shutting out St. Louis 1-0 for the Black Hawks. It was the 13th shutout of the season for the rookie goalie and tied the record set by Toronto's Harry Lumley in 1953-54.

Elsewhere Sunday, Montreal nipped Pittsburgh 5-4 to move into a tie for third place in the East with the Bruins, four points back of the Bruins and two in front of New York, which lost to Toronto 5-2. Philadelphia topped Oakland 3-2 to move into second place in the West, one point ahead of Pittsburgh.

In Saturday's action, Minnesota edged Boston 5-4, Chicago dropped Pittsburgh 5-3, Detroit whipped Los Angeles 4-1, Montreal blanked Philadelphia 2-0 and Toronto shut out St. Louis 2-0.

Orr's two goals gave him 30 for the season and an incredible 108 points. That's 18 away from the record established by Phil Esposito last season but with only six games left to play, that mark seems out of the reach of the Bruins' fantastic defenseman.

Tony Esposito needed just 21 saves to tag the Blues with their second consecutive shutout.

The only goal of the game came with less than eight minutes remaining when Chicago's Doug Mohns converted a power play with a 15-foot shot while St. Louis' Ron Anderson was in the penalty box.

deeply indebted to you, to Managing Editor Paul H. Jones, and to the other members of your staff for the splendid publicity given this year's show in the columns of Hope Star. You have given us every consideration and much publicity free of charge that has contributed materially to our net income from this effort.

Many individual Kiwanians put much effort and energy into this yearly show and every Kiwanian has some part to play in its success, but without the cooperation of the news media these efforts would produce far less income for the Kiwanis Youth and Community Activities in our town.

Coach Can't Say Enough About Orr

By LARRY ELDREDGE

Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP)—It seems everything has been said time and again about Bobby Orr, but coach Harry Sinden says no matter how much praise his brilliant defenseman gets it isn't enough.

"Unless you've been involved, I don't think you can possibly grasp what's going on," Sinden said after Orr's latest display in leading the Boston Bruins to a 5-0 National Hockey League victory over the Minnesota North Stars Sunday night.

"There isn't a guy who has played pro hockey who isn't completely astonished by what Orr is doing," the coach added. "We've come to take him for granted, we just say 'Orr's leading the league...Orr increased his lead,' but think about it—It's almost unreal! It is unreal!"

What's unreal, of course, is that Orr—a defenseman—has dominated the league scoring race from the beginning and is a sure bet to become the first player at his position ever to wind up winning the scoring title.

In the process, he's broken just about every scoring record around for defensemen, and a few games ago became only the fourth player at any position ever to hit 100 points in a season.

On Sunday night Orr scored two goals—his 29th and 30th of the season and also set up another pair for his 77th and 78th assists. The latter broke the NHL record of 77 for a season set last year by teammate Phil Esposito.

Asked if the assist record was more important than his earlier feat of reaching the magic 100-point mark, Orr said, "54, that's what's important."

The game was indeed a big one for the Bruins, keeping them in first place in the NHL's wild East Division race by a slim one point edge over the Chicago Black Hawks, who also won their game Sunday night in a 1-0 thriller over the St. Louis Blues.

The Bruins now have only six regular season games remaining.
